Contract No. SC-21-54

Dear Sir:

You will remember the discussion in Los Angeles on the 30-31st of August last, with reference to requirements and liabilities in connection with certain workmen's compensation and accident laws vis-a-vis security considerations of the work being performed. At such meeting, it was indicated that we would issue instructions as to how your Company should proceed.

The enclosed carbon copies of an instruction letter set forth our directions on this matter. The original of this letter has been signed by the head of our organization and, because of the sensitive nature of such signature when related to this contract, will be retained on file in our physical custody. Such original is, however, available at any time for inspection by authorized persons of your company; it will be available for use in the event this becomes necessary. The carbon copies forwarded herewith are unsigned for security reasons and you may retain one copy as authority to proceed as indicated therein. It is requested that this paper be treated with the same security considerations as are applicable to all phases of our work.

Please indicate on the carbon copy of the instant letter receipt and acknowledgement of same. On one of the carbon copies of the instruction letter please have an authorized person of your Company indicate receipt and acceptance of the instructions stated therein. Return each of the carbons to the undersigned as soon as is practicable.

Sincerely yours,

Contracting Officer
